

November 5 Pray for the Wilberforce 21 Trust, who have been such a faithful supporter of PFNZ, and for the dozens of other Christian organisations in New Zealand supported by their grants.

November 6 Pray for the success of the PFNZ movie fundraiser at the Lighthouse Petone at 630pm on Thursday 10th.
(Tickets still available by emailing admin@pfnz.org.nz)

November 7 Thanksgiving for the success of the Angel Tree Christmas application process; despite hiccups, around 3500 children will receive a gift this year.

November 8 For Tim a faithful volunteer who is recovering, now at home, after a stroke and for Jocelyn who is caring for him

November 9 Pray for the United States as they go to the polls today (NZ time), and for peace and harmony in the aftermath!

November 10 Thanks for other support services in the reintegration space, especially the Salvation Army— we are not alone!

November 11 Thanks to God for so many new volunteers and we ask His protection over them and their families as they begin this ministry.

October 12 For the success of our current approach to former BreakFree coaches, that they are called to support our reconfigured reintegration efforts and to join in the local PFNZ cluster

November 13 Please keep praying for Angel Tree Christmas and the children who will; be receiving gifts.

November 14 Pray for people to come forward to act as area cluster (volunteer) coordinators, especially in Christchurch and Hawkes Bay.

November 15 Giving thanks for the growing numbers of family support volunteers, we pray that those recently linked family support people and families will grow long lasting, fulfilling, supportive relationships

November 16 For Dave, a volunteer who is recovering at home after hospitalisation.

November 17 Please uphold PFNZ staff who are meeting these two days with some Board members to plan for 2017.

November 18 Please uphold PFNZ staff who are meeting these two days with some Board members to plan for 2017.

November 19 Give thanks for a business that offered employment to a prisoner

November 20 We give thanks to God for the Trinity Lands Trust, especially the Arohanui and Stockbridge as they celebrate 65 years of giving to the Kingdom and for years of faithful giving to PFNZ.

November 21 Thanks for the change of heart of one ex-prisoner who has now exceeded the time he has previously spent out of prison

November 22 For successful planning for our Christmas family meals and their expansion around New Zealand.

November 23 For our new website, and for the sterling work of Peter and ????; may it bear much fruit in support of this ministry.

November 24 We give thanks for the innovation of the on-line learning system, which gives us the ability to train volunteers nationally.

November 25 Thanks for the faithful volunteers in Taita; they know who they are.

November 26 For the PFNZ Board, and Chair Gregory Fortuin, as it meets today

November 27 For the growing challenges to effective prison chaplaincy created by recent changes, for patience and wisdom in response.

November 28 We pray for the PFNZ family nationwide, bless each individual and give them unity in the Spirit to help them operate as a team and give them your peace, knowing that they are working in your will.

November 29 For ATC Area Coordinators as they coordinate the distribution of angels to our partner churches.

November 30 For a continued healthy and productive relationship with the Department of Corrections as we have our quarterly meeting with them today.

November 31 For Kiwi, and PFI's Children of Prisoners Programme head Adam, as he refreshes on a visit home, and for the 4,000 children in the programme, that all will be quickly linked to individual sponsors.

December 1 Thanks for the faithful volunteers in Taita; they know who they are!

December 2 Give thanks that a caregiver who attended a recent event has come forward and is volunteering to support Angel Tree

December 3 Pray for meaningful contacts to be established with new families following up from Christmas gifts 2016.

December 4 For Angel Tree families and children throughout Aotearoa and those that are assisted around the world. Please Lord save them from poverty and abuse and show them your love and compassion

December 5 Pray for an older man who has limited life skills and has been released from prison and is struggling with anxiety.